

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF THE KINGS, QUEENS PRINCES, PRINCESSES AND NOBILITY INTERRED AT THE CHURCH OF THE

HOLY TRINITY DUNFERMLIE

SEPULTURE OF THE ROYAL FAMILY OF SCOTLAND.

- 1093 MALCOLM III CEANN-MOR (CANMORE) KING OF SCOTS, (son of Duncan I, King of Scots, murdered 1040 by MacBeth). Malcolm was slain at Alnwick in 1093, (age 70 years and had reigned 37 years). Interred at Tynemouth Priory, re-interred twice, first at Dunfermline in 1115, with great pomp before the "Great Altar" (High Altar) and secondly at the Lady Chapel of Dunfermline Abbey in 1250.
- 1093 MARGARET QUEEN OF KING MALCOLM III, (second wife) died in Edinburgh Castle on 16th November 1093, (age 47 years and had reigned 23 years) and was brought to Dunfermline by her son Ethelrede and buried before the "Rwde Awtre" (the Altar o the Holy Cross) she became Saint Margaret in 1249.
- 1093 PRINCE EDWARD, eldest son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, he died of a mortal wound in his 22nd year. Slain with his father at the siege of Alnwick Castle in Northumberland. His remains were brought to Dunfermline and interred near his father before the Altar of the Holy Cross.
- 1094 DUNCAN II, KING OF SCOTS, son of King Malcolm III and his first wife Ingibiorg of Orkney. He was assassinated in 1104/5 and said to be buried at Dunfermline.
- 1098 PRINCE ETHELREDE, 3rd son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, he died about this period in England, while on a visit to his sister, Matilda, Queen of England. He was buried near his mother the Queen, and his brother Prince Edward, in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Dunfermline.
- 1100 PRINCE EDMOND, 2nd son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, died about this year and was interred at Dunfermline.
- 1107 EDGAR KING OF SCOTS, 4th son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, died at Dundee 7th January (age 33 and had reigned 9 years) and was buried before the High Altar.
- 1120 SIBILLA QUEEN OF ALEXANDER I, died and was buried at Dunfermline.
- 1124 ALEXANDER I, KING OF SCOTS, 5th son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, died at Stirling 26th April (age 48 and had reigned 18 years) and was buried beside his father before the High Altar.
- 1153 DAVID I, KING OF SCOTS, commonly called Saint David, the youngest son of King Malcolm III and Queen Margaret, died at Carlisle 27th May (age 76 and had reigned for 30 years) he was found dead in a posture of devotion. Buried near his father before the Great Altar in the pavement of the Middle Choir.

- 1180 MALCOLM EARL OF FIFE AND HIS COUNTESS, died about this period.
- 1184 ANDREW BISHOP OF CAITHNESS, formerly Culdean Abbot of Dunkeld.
- 1304 THE MOTHER OF WILLIAM WALLACE, hastily buried at a spot now in the northern churchyard marked by a thorn tree. This site was that of the Abbey (churchyard) weeping cross, destroyed at the Reformation and replaced by a tree of thorns.
- 1332 THOMAS RANDOLPH EARL OF MORLAY, REGENT OF SCOTLAND, died at Musselburgh and was buried at Dunfermline "Our Lady's Isle". He was married to the sister of King Robert I. He was a leader on the field of Bannockburn in 1314, elected Regent of Scotland on the death of King Robert I, in 1329 and poisoned by an insidious monk in 1332.
- 1360 WILLIAM RAMSAY 14TH EARL OF FIFE, died and was interred in the Abbey.
- 1419 ROBERT STUART DUKE OF ALBANY, EARL OF FIFE, REGENT OF SCOTLAND, buried at Dunfermline.
- 1443 THE BODY OF A CHILD, found while pulling down the Royal Walls, buried in such a way it was as fresh and uncorrupted as the first hour when it was buried. This baby was judged to be the son, who died in his infancy of Queen Margaret.
- 1486 WILLIAM BROWN, eminent Theologian and Poet, died age 90 years.
- 1499 ROBERT HENRYSON, Schoolmaster and Poet, died age 76 years.
- 1508 JOHANNES SCOTT, is believed to be the now oldest legible inscription on the once lettered pavement of the Abbey Church. A man of position as the stone is so near the site of the Old Rood Altar.
- 1577 YOUNG LAIRD OF ROSYTHER, buried in the Kirk of Dunfermline.
- 1584 ROBERT PITCAIRN THE FIRST COMMENDATOR OF DUNFERMLINE, ARCHDEACON OF ST ANDREWS, AND SECRETARY OF STATE FOR SCOTLAND, died age 64 on 18th October, interred in the north-east angle of the Nave in the Abbey.
- 1592 JAMES MURRAY OF PERDEWIS, (south of the Nethertown in Dunfermline, died 28th September and was interred in Dunfermline Abbey.
- 1598 MR DAVID FERGUSON, first Protestant Minister of Dunfermline, died 23rd April age 65 years and in his 38th year of his Ministry.
- 1602 WILLIAM SCHAW, "Master of the Works," Architect to King James VI, died 18th April. Queen Anne ordered a monument to be erected to him.
- 1602 DEATH OF THE INFANT PRINCE, "He departed this life at Dunfermline, the 27th day of May, and was interred there." (Balf. An. Scot. vol. i. p. 410) "The 27 day of Maii, Robert, Duck of Kintyre, deceasit at Dunfermling." This prince was only 14 weeks old at the time of his death. Probably he was interred in the vault house the south-east corner of the Old Church. This vault was gien to Sir Henry Wardlaw, of Pitreavie, by the King and Queen, in 1616.